

Global Diversity & Inclusion Benchmarks: Standards for Organizations Around the World (GDIB) 10th Year Anniversary Event

"Identifying the Business Case for Diversity & Inclusion"

Join us to gain valuable insights from workshop presenters and meet the GDIB co-author and expert panelists.

Date	Thursday, September 22, 2016
Time	Registration & Networking	6:00 pm – 6:30 pm
	Program and Workshop	6:30 pm – 7:45 pm
	Post Workshop and Networking	7:45 pm – 8:30 pm
Location	Toyota Automobile Museum 19600 Van Ness Ave. Torrance, CA 90501
Workshop Description & Presenters	Presenters will discuss an approach that led to alignment around the Diversity & Inclusion business case for a specific client, including the use of the GDIB during the assessment & benchmarking phases of the process. Lori Heffelfinger MSOD Principal, The Heffelfinger Company Denise Kirwan, MSOD, PCC Vice-President, Los Angeles Diversity Council; Principal, TracksGlobal
Speakers	Julie O'Mara Co-Author, Global Diversity & Inclusion Benchmarks (GDIB) Jennifer "Jae" Requirio National Manager of Diversity and Inclusion, Toyota Financial Services; GDIB Expert Panelist Hiroko Tatebe Founder and Executive Director, Global Organization for Leadership and Diversity (GOLD); GDIB Expert Panelist
Fee & Registration	Admission Fee: Free Space is limited. You must register to attend. ONLINE REGISTRATION

Event Sponsor

Collaborating Sponsors

About the GDIB

The GDIB, a free downloadable 80-page booklet, helps organizations determine strategy and measure progress in managing diversity and fostering inclusion. Agreed upon by 97 experts around world, the GDIB provides a roadmap for organizations of all sizes, types, industries, sectors and locations regardless of their approaches to Diversity and Inclusion.

Go to www.diversitycollegium.org and navigate to GDIB.

Contact

Email: GDIBLA@goldleaders.org